New 'style'

Submitted by Denko on Thu, 19/05/2011 - 10:20

Dear sangha

I am now officially a student of Kilung Rinpoche, a Nyingma Lama and Tulku.

A Dzogchen retreat with him have already radically changed my perspective on buddhistic practice. This means that our style at Egely Monastery and RZBS is going to change a great deal. Much is already changed - come and experience!

We will as soon as possible conduct a 3-day sesshin, where this new style will be presented and discussed. Please let us know if you are interested and, in that case, when it will be possible for you to attend. This retreat is extremely important for our future.

All this is in order to make our way as complete and 'correct' (in regards to Buddhism's fundamental principles) as possible. My highest responsibility is not to 'cheat' any of you.

So: we are egerly awaiting your response.
