Dear Genjo Roshi,

I wish to express my sincere gratitude for your above statement – that took real insight and courage to publish. I thank you not just for myself, but for the other three men and most of all – for the good will your statement will engender in the larger disenfranchised, exiled ZSS sangha.

It feels like a weight has been lifted... I am delighted to be able to refer to you as my Dharma brother for I sincerely perceive that we are truly in agreement on facing the truth together as we walk side by side on the path of the awakened state of mind.

I extend my best wishes for you and your group in establishing your new temple and wish I could have been there for your opening ceremony. I will send along a few of my rakusu rings <http://www.engaged-zen.org/articles/Rings.html> as an opening gift for folks who take jukai in the new facility.

In dynamic peace,

Kobutsu

Nine deep bows, Genjo Roshi.

I believe your honesty and your willingness to reconsider matters will serve you and Zen practice in America well.

Thank you.
