Kevin you are a complete phony and you know it. You never completed a kessi much less a sesshin in you miserable life. For some reason Edio ordained you so you could get the job at Sing-Sing as the bogus zen teacher you are. I was there when you got your false credentials and if called upon I will bear witness to your false claims and false titles as well as your claims to be a dharma heir to Trungpa. I was in the Vajra Sangha during all those years you claimed to be a student and I never saw you fat ass around any of the practice centers or around Trungpa. You make me want to puke dharma parasite.
