PART I

Sherry Chayat; you have been properly and righteously exposed... you have actually quite completely exposed yourself! Feigned indignation over being "outed" as you yourself have done to so many others in the service of Eido Shimano does not wash now. That you now are indignant that your words were published without your permission is irrelevant in view of the magnitude of the importance of what you have said and now try to suppress!

We know who you are Roko, we know how you have lied, cheated, deceived, abandoned and thrown others under the bus in furtherance of your personal infatuation with Eido Shimano for decades. Roko, you want so badly to legitimize yourself as a titled heir, standing on someone else's shoulders rather than your own two feet that you have completely lost sight of the nature of truth itself.

The obsequious front that you pull out and prop up for the rubes to gush over is tired, frayed around the edges and worn out. You wonder why people are not flocking to you for dokusan... it's simple really, you are uninspired, dull, and childish, and are only capable of roleplaying. What you pin on your sleeve as "caring" and "Oh so willing to listen" is anything but genuine... it will fool the foolish for a short time. But soon becomes painfully disingenuous and embarrassingly transparent when you ignore those you have fooled as unworthy of your august attention.

You are rapidly running out of options Roko, those of us who have known you for who you really are all these years see through your roleplaying and sense the deep-seated unfulfilled-ness that resides within you as a woman. You have not blossomed like Maurine Stuart did at all; instead you have turned into a hideous, completely selfish and manipulative scarecrow in the service of evil.

Everything that Jeff Shore told you is true... it is likely the most truth you have encountered in a long, long, time. It is far beyond the lies and self-aggrandizing garbage that Shimano spewed forth and that you faithfully lapped up as his obedient little slave. What Jeff told you is pointing to liberation.... What Shimano told you, and now your "invested" friends are telling you, points to but systemic enslavement.

Do you really think that brutish people like Nonin Chowaney, or fools like Denko Mortensen are concerned with your, or anybody else's liberation? Really?

Those who masquerade as "teachers," "fully transmitted Dharma heirs" and the like; are but fraudulent buffoons gesturing wildly on stage... Look at me! Listen to me! Do what I say! Such people strut around with robes and titles and ensembles of peerage but are, in their ignorance, only concerned with ego building, playing card house construction, gaining personal recognition and establishing direct control over others.

PART II

Is this really what you want to be known for Roko? Do you want to be remembered as Eido Shimano's prime enabler who lied on his behalf to the very end because she was too proud to simplify her life and quietly walk away from the freak show? Do you want to be remembered as the one who was so blind as to not be able to see the path in front of her own two feet?

The words you have so cavalierly thrown at us victims are but poison venom for our wounds. "I am beyond saddened by your devastating account, which is so courageous and clear, so profound in its insights." We don't care how "beyond saddened" you say you are Roko; to us it's only more obsequious, but ultimately meaningless rhetoric.

"Be assured that I will read it aloud this weekend, although I can't promise to read it without sobbing; that I am listening acutely to what you say, and that my heart is pierced by it." Roko, we don't care if you sob or not, we know you well enough to see your crocodile tears for public consumption and could care less how you say your heart is "pierced." We don't care how many times you say, "I hear you." Or how many times you cajole others into shouting out "We hear you!" on your command. Because we know full well that you don't care and have never cared for our welfare. We know that you were fully cognizant of Eido Shimano's predations and for years sent women students from Syracuse to DBZ.

"You are right, the complex and difficult loyalties have not allowed a clean and strong separation. I hear you."

“The complex and difficult loyalties” Roko? What planet are you living on? Women and children were raped... everyone was lied to, people were defrauded, good, honest hardworking, well-intentioned Zen students were discarded on a whim. You supported all this, you still support this as you sit and hem ‘n haw about your status in “the lineage.” Where are your sobs now Roko? Tell us again how your heart is “pierced”, as you go looking for personal legitimacy in the musty records of archaic temples in foreign countries.

Show us just what you have done tangibly to formally address the predation of Eido Shimano in THIS country, over the past 46 years... Show us results Roko, don't try to shovel over “Samoa circles” as tangible results... such efforts are but theatrics generated by corrupt, incestuous pseudo-organizations designed to maintain the status quo.

Jeff Shore outlined the sanest, most compassionate solution to the Shimano-dilemma floated so far. Close down the organization, put it into receivership for the benefit of all those who were injured. Take off your robes, renounce your titles, publicly apologize for everything and quietly go home.
